

THREE KILLED IN RAILROAD WRECK

Brakes Failed on Freight Box Car
Near Edgemoor, Pa.
Dead, Two Drivers of Train Box Car

As the result of a broken coupling between a freight box car and a passenger train, three men were killed and two were injured.

The dead are:
Harry E. Glogus, Hagawone, from Edgemoor, Pa., who was killed by being struck by the passenger train.
David E. Fuchs, Hagawone, from Edgemoor, Pa., who was killed by being struck by the passenger train.
Clayton Knepp, Knapdale, from Edgemoor, Pa., who was killed by being struck by the passenger train.

The injured are:
C. B. Richeberger, Hagawone, from Edgemoor, Pa., who was injured by being struck by the passenger train.
H. E. Glogus, Hagawone, from Edgemoor, Pa., who was injured by being struck by the passenger train.

The wreck was the most disastrous accident that has occurred on the road since the wreck from the fall of 1914, the damage was not very great.

The wreck was due to the failure of the coupling between the freight box car and the passenger train.

The operator at Edgemoor was killed by being struck by the passenger train.

The engine of both trains was damaged by the wreck.

Those of the cars or engine left the bridge through both engines were damaged.

Rescue train No. 1 was made up of cars loaded with merchandise.

Two of the dead, Frances Glogus, wife of Harry E. Glogus, and her son, were killed by being struck by the passenger train.

The Last Round Up on Everything in the Ready-Made Department

We were so extravagantly stocked all during the season that we have, of necessity, much left over. We are willing to take a big loss rather than to carry over any Spring or Summer stock, so down goes the price to make it TEMPTING.

We have set

Thursday, Aug. 25, Friday, Aug. 26, Saturday, Aug. 27,
For this Great Sale, as we want to turn good merchandise into cash

No Goods from this Sale will be Charged

We have 7 elegant Suits left from Winter

Were from $20.00 to $22.50. Sale price for a choice $12.50
 Were from $15.00 to $18.00. Sale price for a choice $9.98

HUMAN HEARTS

"Human Hearts" the "Jelly" of the Arkansas Hills will soon be produced at the Walter Theatre. Like those from the Old Homestead, this one incenses the heart as well as the head. The music is an ancient classic, the words are of an old mother, the strong love of a simple country girl, the passion of an adventurer, the truth of a half wit, the love of an old woman and the memory of a dead mother are the memory of Arkansas, are all powerfully demonstrated by the best music of this absorbing tale of the Arkansas Hills. Each succeeding scene of this thrilling play is a new scene from history, as indeed the management to make for this season's production one of the strongest companies ever organized in our town. On the lovers of a good play, will not see the last of this season will appear none more strongly than "Human Hearts." At the Walter Theatre, Tuesday, August 26.

Miss Elizabeth Harbort and Miss Louise McKnight are guests of Misses Louise and Katharine Harbort.
